

Who is Lennar?

Since 1954, Lennar has had the privilege to help families across America move into the next stage of life with new homes. We are considered to be one of the nation's leading homebuilders, a Fortune 500 company with a strength of 8,000 associates leading operations in 19 states. Our commitment to Quality, Value, and Integrity is the underlying foundation upon which Lennar was built, and these three fundamental principles still guide us in caring for our customers, associates, shareholders, and community.

Culture

Lennar's strong culture prospers in an environment full of spirit, enthusiasm, passion, and vitality. An outsider looking in may find some of our traditions unusual - name badges, reciting a poem about a Little Red Hen, and reading Dr. Seuss. However, these unique institutions make up a culture that unites us as one Company and gives us a sense of pride.

Innovation

Lennar consistently remains at the forefront of new home design. We encourage ingenuity and teamwork, value new ideas and input from our associates at all levels of the organization, because without innovation there can be no progress.

Technology

At Lennar, we pride ourselves on being pioneers of new technology. Not only do many of our homes feature the latest appliances and home automation systems, but our field associates use top-of-the-line tablets to easily access plans and schedules from anywhere. Moreover, we employ current software programs to modify, redesign, and communicate floorplans, structural features, and landscape projects - everything that our homebuilding teams need to carry out their operations in a timely, efficient manner.

Giving Back

We care for a lot of people, and they need us. "Giving back" means donating our time and resources to meet a responsibility we hold for the care of our customers, associates, community, and environment. Some of our social responsibility efforts include:

- Partnering with Habitat for Humanity and the Special Olympics to build homes.
- Managing a Life and Work Skills Program for students with intellectual disabilities.
- Mitigating wetlands to preserve wildlife and offset damages from development activities.
